

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	xiii
About the Author	xv
Preface	xvii
Disclaimer	xix
Introduction	xxi
The Goals of This Book	xxi
What Are the Benefits of This Book	xxi
Contractor & Owner Conventions	xxii
Private Contracts or Government Contracts?	xxii
Key Contracting Concepts	xxii
Two Types of Commercial Terms & Conditions	xxiii
The Most Important Commercial Terms & Conditions	xxiv
The Contracting Process	xxv
Excuses for Not Negotiating Better Commercial Terms & Conditions	xxv
The Concept of Risk Transfer	xxvi
This is a Book Developed Just for Contractors	xxvi
Chapter 1: Contracts: Basic Training	1
What Is a Contract?	1
The Steps to a Contract	1
Coming to the Party?	2
The Starting Point	2

“Here’s My Proposal”	3
“Consideration,” or Something of Value	5
The “Happy Test”	5
“Can That Person Sign This Contract?”	5
Call in the Enforcer To Close the Breach	6
A Contract Example	7
Strange Words & Long Paragraphs	9
Contracting Myths	10
Contract Negotiations	11
Chapter 2: Types & Forms of Contracts	13
Fixed Price & Fixed Schedule Contracts	13
Reimbursable Type Contracts	14
Combined Fixed Price & Reimbursable Contracts	16
Cost Plus Fee Contracts	17
Guaranteed Maximum Price Contracts	18
Target Price Contracts	19
Contracts with Performance Incentives	19
Form of Contracts	20
Some Final Contract Housekeeping—Definitions	25
Conclusion	27
Chapter 3: Scope of Work	29
The Scope of Work Matrix	33
Scoping Drawings	34
Conclusion	35
Chapter 4: Terms of Payment & Cash Flow	37
Cash Flow	37
Interest Rates	40
Periodic Progress & Milestone Payments	40
Conclusion	53
Chapter 5: The Schedule	55
Float	56
Time Is of the Essence	57
Extra Time, but No Money	59
Conclusion	61
Chapter 6: Assurances of Performance	63
Guaranties & Bonds	63
What Does “Failure to Perform” Mean?	65
What Is a Bond?	66
Forms of Assurances of Performance	66
Surety Companies	73

Some Language Considerations on Guaranties & Bonds	75
Types of Performance Assurances	75
Conclusion	92
Chapter 7: Insurance	93
What Is Insurance?	94
Claims Made vs. Occurrence	95
Types of Insurance	95
Important Issues Associated with Insurance	101
Additional Insured Status	107
Additional Insurance Basics	109
A Typical Insurance Clause in a Construction Contract	119
Safety	124
Chapter 8: Indemnity	125
Insurance & Indemnity	125
Indemnity Definitions	126
Transferring the Owner's Risks to Contractors	127
Fairness Is Not a Consideration	127
Is an Indemnity Required in a Construction Contract?	127
Anti-Indemnity Legislation	128
Examples of Indemnification Clauses	131
Indemnification, Additional Insured Status, & Contractual Liability Insurance	137
Owners Love CLAIMS!	140
Negotiating Indemnity Clauses	141
Knock-for-Knock Indemnities	144
Conclusion	145
Chapter 9: Changes	147
Some Ground Rules	148
Protecting the Project Manager	148
Owners' Directives	149
Constructive Changes	149
Payment for Changes	149
Sample Change Clauses	150
Major Contract Changes	155
Negotiating Change Clauses	156
Conclusion	157
Chapter 10: Disputes & Their Resolution	159
What's a Project Manager To Do? A Short Story To Start With	159
Disputes—The Construction Contract's Bad Actor	160

An Ounce of Prevention	161
Dispute Resolution Options	162
The Folks Who Negotiate, Mediate, Arbitrate, & Litigate	163
Dispute Resolution Clauses	164
Conclusion	166
Chapter 11: Damages	167
Breach of Contract/Failure To Perform	167
Contractors' Financial Exposure	168
Actual Damages—A Silent Risk?	168
Liquidated Damages	170
Consequential Damages	176
Conclusion	179
Chapter 12: Warranties	181
A Workable Definition of Warranty	181
Warranty Issues	182
The Uniform Commercial Code	187
When Is No Warranty Appropriate?	189
Extended Duration Warranties	191
Limiting Provisions in Warranties	193
Pass-Through Warranties	194
Latent Defects & Warranties	195
A Sample Warranty	195
Conclusion	195
Chapter 13: Termination & Suspension	197
Termination for Cause	197
Termination for Convenience	199
Suspension	202
Cancellation	205
Conclusion	205
Chapter 14: Force Majeure	207
Negotiating Clauses	207
Sample Contract Language	208
Conclusion	212
Chapter 15: Other Contract Clauses	213
Site Conditions	214
Use of Completed Portions of the Work	219
Patent Indemnity	220
Secrecy & Confidentiality Clauses & Agreements	220

Owner's Right To Inspect	222
Independent Contractors	224
Assignment	225
Acceptance & the Punch List	226
Advance & Partial Waiver of Liens	229
Final Waiver of Liens	231
Audit Rights	233
Severability or Validity Clauses	235
Venue & Applicable Law	235
Some Interesting Clauses to Close	237
Chapter 16: International Contracting	239
International Contracts	240
The U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act	241
Letters of Credit	242
Split Contracts: Onshore & Offshore Contracts	243
Political, Religious, & Economic Risks	244
Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC)	245
Legal Systems in Foreign Countries	245
Local Employees, Partners, & Agents	246
Offshore Companies	247
Currency Risks	248
Applicable Law	251
Joint Ventures	253
Joint Operations	254
Import & Export Considerations	254
Understanding INCOTERMS	256
The Export-Import Bank of the United States	258
Where to Get Some Help—Ask the U.S. Government	259
Lastly, Use the Right Paper Size!	260
Conclusion	260
Chapter 17: Some Final Thoughts on Negotiating Contracts	261
Why Negotiate?	261
The Concept of Standard Terms & Conditions	262
Risk Transfer Item 1: Get Rid of the Indemnity Clause!	264
Risk Transfer Item 2: Don't Provide Additional Insured Status	264
Risk Transfer Clauses, Insurance, & Safety	265
How to Say No Without Aggravating the Owner	265

The Worst Contracting Word: “Reasonable”	266
The Best Contracting Word: “Notwithstanding”	266
Win-Win & Lose-Lose in Contract Negotiations—Fairy Tales?	267
Is There a Price for Bad Commercial Terms & Conditions?	268
Terms of Payment	268
Some Tips on Successful Negotiating	269
Three First (and Final) Suggestions	269
Resources	271
Glossary	271
Index	287